Baptism of the Lord

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Attawandaron, Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples

Welcome and Announcements

Hymn # 232 “Joyful, Joyful, We Adore You”

Call to Worship:

As individuals, as a group,
as a community of faith-
we gather where we are.

To listen.

To communicate.

To worship.

To pray.

To be with God.

Because we know-it is out of God’s authority,

it is out of God’s love,
that we live. Alleluia!

Opening Prayer:

Water of Life, present at the creation of the universe.

Water of Life, present at our birth.

Water of Life, present at the baptism of Jesus.

Water of Life, present at our own baptisms.

We remember that at these times, not only was there water, but also the voice of God was experienced and felt speaking to us.

God, Water of Life, we come this morning to be filled with your living water and to listen for your voice. Amen.
